

New York Tribune

Part Seven Eight Pages

Graphic Section

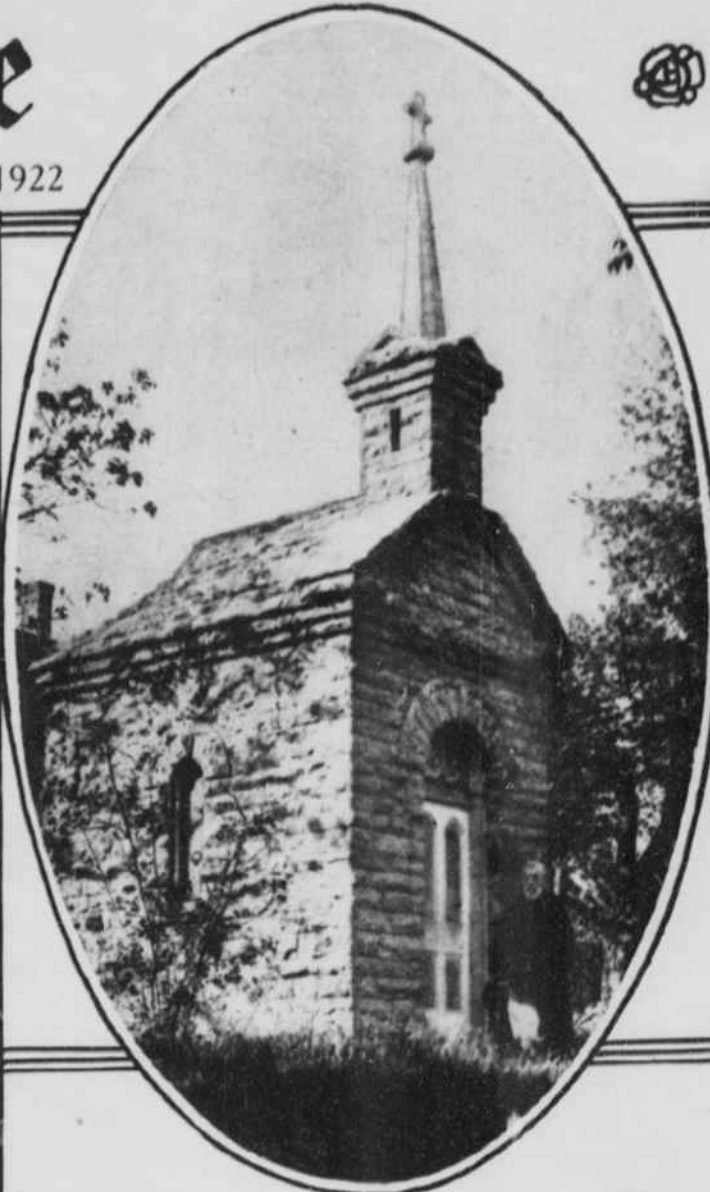

December 31, 1922

MRS. THEODORE ROOSEVELT. A new camera portrait of one of the most charming hostesses in Washington—the wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy. Mrs. Roosevelt was the first American woman sent overseas for war work by the Y. W. C. A.
H. & E. from Paul Thompson

BLESSING THE CHRISTMAS SHIP. the U. S. S. Sabatowan, that sailed from Brooklyn last week for Greece, laden down with a $2,000,000 cargo of food and clothing, the holiday gift of Americans to the child refugees of the Near East. Suffragan Bishop Shipman, National Field Director of the Near East Relief, is pictured consecrating the ship, which is due to arrive at Piraeus, its destination, on January 19, which is Christmas Day according to the Armenian's calendar.
Underwood

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST CHURCH. High in the Kentucky hills is the tiniest house of worship in Christendom—an edifice so small that it can accommodate a congregation of but three persons at a time. The sturdy little stone sanctuary was built by monks who once lived in the neighborhood, only one of whose number survives. He is pictured standing beside the door of his diminutive chapel.
Underwood

EATS HIS OWN WEIGHT DAILY. Ruth Clifford, pretty member of the cast of "The Dangerous Age," and her three-year-old pet, a dwarfed squirrel-monkey, said to be the smallest in captivity. The wee simian, captured by the recent Selig expedition along the Amazon in Brazil, weighs but four ounces and eats his own weight in grapes and figs daily.
Wide World

Left—ELMHURST ESKIMOS. Margaret and Janet, the appealing twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cobban pictured in a snow igloo in the back yard of their home in Elmhurst, L. I.
Publishers Photo Service

Right—NOT THE EX-KAISER, but one Senor Garcia Prieto, Marquis de Alhucemas, head of Spain's Liberal party, who has again got his old job back, that of Premier—from one of the first photographs to be received in the United States.
Underwood

Below, left — STREAM-LINE EQUESTRIANISM as demonstrated by Miss Minnie Thompson, America's leading feminine exponent of the art of plain and fancy horseback riding. The attractive side-saddle equestrienne of our striking photograph is said to be a protegee of Mrs. August Belmont and instructor in horsemanship to Miss Pauline Frederick.
Underwood

THE ONLY CABINET BABY. Mother Love would be an apt title of this Christmas camera snap of Mrs. James J. Davis, wife of the Secretary of Labor, and her nine-month-old daughter, Jean Allys, the only baby born to the better half of a Cabinet member during the present Administration.
Underwood

Left—AMERICA'S HEALTHIEST MAID. Fifteen-year-old Marguerite Martin, of Tennessee, grand champion winner of the National Health Show held recently in Chicago. The bobbed-hair entry of the Chattanooga-Interstate Fair Association scored 96.5 points in her physical examinations.
Wide World

Right—"INTO THE JAWS OF DEATH." Miss Gladys Callow, an attractive Fellow of the British Zoological Society, noted for the ease with which she makes friends with wild animals, pictured feeding tidbits to Bob, the three-ton hippopotamus of the London Zoo.
Central News